AWARDS

BOOMARANG - Stumbles gave that to yours truly this week, on account that im havin the chop on wed n hopefully I'll come back next week running. I'll just be happy if I'm crutchless...

WENDELL - Showed up this week revived and refreshed, he even had a new raincoat on, a nice red one (hope it doesn't make him go faster), I gave this to Slippery Nipple this week. I thought as he now rattles when you shake him and Slip has a sports carnival this week, she can use it to cheer her students on or knock them over the head if they need revving up, and with his new coat & bow tie he's all wrapped and ready to be taken out

LOOK AT SLIP, SHE WANT
WENDELL SOOO BAD

VIRGIN SHIRT - Well who else could this go to this week other than our passport virgin, CRAFTY. You can wear this on the plane, especially if you are flying virgin!! Hey You just might find your own virgin up there in that air club... fingers (not legs) crossed!

GENERAL BUSINESS

INVITATION RUN - Nambucca Heads is out of the contest for our Invitation Run now, it seems that the manager of the park has heard some very untrue rumors' about "Hash" clubs and how noisy & unruly they are, my god who would say that bout us? Must be some other clubs.. Bash or something.. However the girls did check out Mylestrom again and the people there were most friendly and have no problems with our great club visiting them for the weekend, so people this could be the happening place in November... we will keep you posted up updates as they happen, or you may hear through the grapevine or from the gossips...but check your Hash Trash to make sure of the facts...

RELAY 4 LIFE - we three musketeers have managed to collect donations from local businesses to the value of just over $1400 which we have made into 21 prizes. I have handed out raffle tickets for you to sell they are $1 each or 6 for $5, there are some great prizes so please sell as many as you can, if you can't sell them, Then you will have to buy them. " HOPE YOU ENJOY READING THESE NOTES PEOPLES IF NOT, TO BAD,"
