

HASH RUN 1144 - CRAFTYS CROSS COUNTRY

Monday 3rd May 2010

A lovely mild evening with a brood of 18 turning up to huddle around Crafty's washing machine open fire, which kept our resident pyro happy for a while trying to set fire to the stars... good on ya Bronco.

Crafty played cook on his BBQ with his bit on the side (lucky bugga!) he had a mountain of food, which tasted great! Nice way to impress our visitors from up North, Condom & Wet Cheque, nice to see you again guys... a great run from all accounts the Runners were buggered and the walkers happy... I got to give Crafty a pat down which he didn't seem to object to, said it made the patties cook faster, minds people!!

TOLD YOU I WOULD START MAKIN SHIT UP IF NO ONE WANTED TO SHARE SECRETS,

Clipper had to hold onto something while she was daydreaming about going home to her birthday presents...mmm
