

Run: 1839
Date: 4-9-23
Hare: Bolt Arse
Venue: Club Thunder

14 hardy and keen runners turned up on a windy night that was changed to a howling North Easterly later in the evening. 3 brave souls went on a long run (this was to make up for the previous week's short run). The others did a short walk on a long pier. We couldn't wait for the 3 runners (not lost) to return to dig in the sumptuous tucker - pork larb, spinach pie and rice.

Circle was called and a run report was given as usual with ridiculous ratings due to the lack of chalk. Thunderbox gave a short history of invention of chalk and the origin of the Thai larb. This resulted in an overall minus 6 million. To set the record right - the Hare set the run at 6.30 am. The markings were later slightly washed away after a light shower at 9.00am.

SOW went to Pharlap. He forgot to bring chillies for the chef as agreed at the Friday's lunch.
