Quickette's Run
Number 627 Of
17th April 2000

So who's training for the City to Surf?

Quickette must be, that's for sure. And it would have to be a record run length run distance for Quickette who usually plods about, doing a mere fraction of the allotted run. Could it be anything to do with that shortcutting prick she lives with? Anyway, we'll soon see if last week was a flash in the pan or if she's serious about the City to Surf.

The run started in earnest from Combine St, with the pack suspecting up until that time a devious On-Back somewhere either in Kratz Dr or Dyer Rd. The trail followed right around Combine St to King St, with the aforementioned Quickie finding and using a worthwhile short-cut, which was offered to another stalwart who later on just bitched about the run length. Ha-ha!

An All-Check Quickette style without any arrows i.e. an ordinary Check, which doesn't slow down anyone, was found in the middle of the King / Robin / West High t roundabout. After nearly being killed just getting to it, the pack followed chalk further west to Shepards Lane, locating another well placed Check in the middle of the bridge. The cunning Runners quickly deducted that the run was not to be found in the shiggy as Quickette was wearing new shoes, so on we went towards Mackays Rd.

After losing any semblance of chalk after the Beryl St /Mackays Rd

Check, Cream Poof eventually relocated the trail halfway back to his place. On down we went into Gundagai St, & lo and behold an On-Home was found heading towards Gundagai Pl where the local Women carry out secret Womens business. And the uphill On-home was just loved by all con-
