Luckless's Run Number 629 Of 1st May 2000

More Records!!!

Now it's Luckless's turn to bring out the Numbers...like 16-17 of the regular crew, plus 4 Visitors. And to top it off, the catering managed to scrape through too. Well done! The Hare claimed to have set the run early in the day, stating that it could be dangerous running through landana, crocodile infested swampland, & if Muddy was to arrive, there was a distinct possibility of drowning. So Luckless handed the reins to a superfit member of the cast, asking him to lead the pack via the alternate trail, which was proven to be worthwhile as we did discover Muddy at his Office with 5 cold beers in his hands, just waiting for the Runners to arrive and partake of nourishment. The run started from Boambee Bay Reserve, into Sawtell, around the School, over the railway to the BMX track & Toormina Rd, down to Muddy's & Rose's Office, & then the On-Home was found somewhere behind Coles, where we made a beeline back to warming soup & sangers at Boambee Reserve. Good delegation Luckless!
