Tommy & Dac now 'cause our 3 the Hospital we Dak & Quickette leading pace found a rare All-wanted to go all men don't need check. Here the way too, but to run no more. Quickette lost the that wet behind the Must be the plot & the chalk Olympics or much to Dac Dak sumthin'.

ears apprentice
Coxswain Pharlap
reckoned that as
no-one else but Quickette was going to do the whole
run, why should
these three?
(Tommy got a
down for the Bribe) We must
really be superfit
Thompson's rd
& into Raleigh
St. Next it was
along Curacoa St
to Albany, &
then away from home towards
the racecourse
we set a gallop,
well, almost. Up
the Link Rd to Victoria and past

the Hospital we found a rare All-
check. Here
Quickette lost the plot & the chalk
much to Dac Dak
& Tommy's dis-
gust, because they had to do more
than they should.
We then regained
the trail going
down Dibbs St &
eventually went
west along High
St. A few blocks
along we found a new & novel On Home, Disguised
only as Quickette
could with the words, "I'm tired,
Go Home". On-On

Special points of in- terest:

*We have accepted
an Invitation to participate in a
teeny-weeny fun-
run to celebrate
the opening of
the Arthur St
flyover at PBP on Sunday 13th
August, with a
sausage sizzle to follow. It will promote CH4 &
maybe even get
some new Hash-
ers. We need everyone there! Alky
will give details.*
