OP sets new Safety Standards!

The Run, yes the whole run, was safely set on the right hand side of the road, so that Hashers could choose which vehicle to run in front of, rather than be bumped off by just any old car careering from behind.

Down Kratz Drive OP took the band of runners once they had extracted Quickie from his problematic printer – aka the late Hash notes – & into Dyer Rd, along Combine St towards the Hwy, when we discovered that the front Runners had a severe case of no chalk at Azalea Ave, so back we went to Pitt St past the tennis courts & east into King St. Around into West High St we found double arrows leading us into Gundagai Pl & across to Scarba St. Next we went along a Long St that lead us annoyingly back down Frances St when we could have just as easily come up Alexander; & then into Jean St to Gundagai St. Are you lost yet? Alky was. OP had scarpered well & truly by now, but the chalk was well laid so Robin St, King & Combine St's eventually got us to the On-Home near Dyer. The tucker SM & Michelle put on was great, the fire bucket was well positioned out of the wind, & to top us off, OP's home brew Bundy really warmed the cockles. On – On!

Special points of interest:

Sunday 13th August 10:00am start is when we have accepted an Invitation to participate in a teeny-weeny fun-run from Diggers Beach Rd to PBP to celebrate the opening of the Arthur St flyover, with a sausage sizzle to follow. The Banana to The Plaza Run will promote CH4 & maybe even get some new Hashers. We need everyone there in the BRIGHTEST, LOUDEST HASH gear you own or have stolen! See our GM Cream Poof more details.
