On the Boardwalk !! of 23rd October 2000

Hare Pinballs

.From Pinny's home we crossed the Highway into the Showground, then onto the walk/cycle way around the southern side of Coffs Creek . The first all - check was found over the bridge where we waited for the first wave of walkers, and then by rights we should have stuck to the trail, but an intuititive Quickie headed straight across the pitch and the Pack followed, including the Hare. We re-found the chalk heading towards the Botanic Gardens and on - up towards the Old TAFE College, where in the bush two humungous arrows definitely pointed into and across Coffs Creek. The five non woosers of Cream Puff, Benalong, Charoen and Quickie didn't mind a bit of Shiggey, whereas the rest of the Pack split, with some going towards the Jetty and others merely returned Home. The Run continued on the Northern side of Coffs Creek, which is a really good track to enjoy with Hashers or Family alike. We re-grouped with Tommy, Dac Dak and Muzza at Melittas Avenue. Muzza couldn't understand why the Runners only wanted to give Dac Dak and Tommy uptight and close wet cuddles. The On Home was found near the Highway. Pinballs failed to live up to his usual culinary specialities even though Master Chef Charoen was with us, and served up cardboard hamburgers. Cream Puff is still on holidays so no dessert. ON ON!
