Handlers's Run Number 656

of 6th November 2000

Who says one can't shortcut an A-B Run?

Hare Handler

Starting promptly at 6:00pm Handler managed to get all the Runners to the start of her Run, the Water Tanks at Sawtell Lookout overlooking Boambee Bay, the Airport, Boambee & Sawtell beaches & the Hin-terland beyond. They are all mentioned as we didn't run anywhere near any of them, but instead naturally ran Down & along the railway to Sawtell Station for the first All-Check. Having had the odd drop of rain we were surprised when running behind the homes in 16th Avenue we didn't sink, but as Council Engineer Pinballs was with us AND checking the drains enroute, we were quite comfortable. Handler got us under the railway & into the shiggy & scrub behind Sawengine Estate/ Newcastle Drive & back to civilisation in Toormina Rd. Next via a kiddies Park & more bushland behind Handlers, Home was found plus latecummers already getting into cardboard Burgers which have really proved popular this year. New Runner Warren survived!
