Quickette's Run

Number 659

of 27th November 2000

Hare noticeably Absent...

Hare Quickette

"I've got a headache" "My neck Hurts" "My back hurts" - have you heard all these excuses before?

Quickette used them all on this Run night & sucked with a capital S Quickie into setting the Run with not a lot of notice. So if youse guys wanna complain about the steep hill climbs, the peri-ously close to the cliff face, shaley rock climbs, or even the lantana, invite Quickette to have a Down, 'cause it was all her impish idea.

We enjoyed the appearance of three new Runners at Diggers, who will hopefully make it as often as work & Family responsibilities allow.

Back to the run which was sort of short but prickly, but at least with the onset of Summer, a welcoming dip at Diggers Beach allowed those who worked up a sweat to cool down before the real Downs began. Bring your Swimmers to just about every other Run from here on in, as you will often have the option to go down & get wet, except for April who we understand is looking forward to being thrown in.

The curried egg tucker which should have appeared at South West Rocks had a distinct bite to it, so all the devon was eaten. On-On!!!
