

Run 1693 🦶🦶🦶🦶. Flaps Run ( but done by Luckless) 🦶🦶🦶🦶 15/11/2020

These notes are done from memory and as I have (had) a marvellous memory, if per chance you don't agree with my recollections, you must have been at another run 😊

Well it was a beautiful evening down at Boambee Reserve, there was some problems with the reserved shelter but Luckless sorted it all out and moved us to a free area where the BBQ's were working, see Hashetts can solve any problem. Approximately 16 true athletes turned up to face the gruelling hills, sand and river crossings with waves thrown in.

Darcy and Lifer, both truly selfless, stayed with the bucket, the natives were a bit restless, while everyone else set off. Everyone said it was a great run and everyone stayed dry because they found a bridge to cross the river and the tide was out. The trail was well marked or would have been if it wasn't so windy, blew all the paper and chalk away.

Dinner was served, curried sausages, supplied by JFI, what a champ, with rice, supplied by Luckless, of course there was cheese and nibbles to start, as you know I'm renowned for my culinary expertise and I thought it was yummy 😊. Let me reiterate females are so talented 🙌

👎 Downs

👎 . Hare - Luckless

👎 . Birthday boy - Metro, he's so old now he turned 70 🙄

👎 . Stumbles, Metro - for wearing hats in the circle

👎 . Quickette - for leaving the money for the gate in the boot and leaving her car door open, so poor old Quickie couldn't drive the car forward and close the door so the gate closed and they had to pay another $5 to get in. I think Quickie should've got a down too.

👎 . Handy - who was slightly under the weather but she coped well, go girl

👎 . Reverse - for being a thief and nicking the salt and pepper shakers last week from Handy, she blamed Pharlapp

🏆 Awards
