

SLIPPERY AND BRONCO'S RUN – 5th April 2021

19 runners (this term is used very loosely) turned out for another Bronco epic trail. As the skies were threatening Bronco held off setting the run until the death but alas for him, the rain never came so he was forced to become a live hare. Luckily for him none of the 11 “runners” actually caught him. The run headed down past Darcy and Thor’s place then left along Thompson’s Rd past the golf course. At this point many of the “athletes” chose to shortcut back up Raleigh Street and on home. The remaining runners (4 of them – thank God Cumz and Goes has a wide social circle and Anal Sunshine is happy for every drop-in to come and stay) continued down towards the tennis courts. The trail went left into Albany Street and back up the hill (yes this is a dirty word in hash these days!) past the Catholic church. They found the on home at the corner of Ridge, Raleigh and Aubrey Cres and actually beat most of the shortcutting bastards home! Handy and Bolt Arse were the last hashers home. Apparently they were talking so much they missed the arrows and lost the trail. But so as not to disappoint themselves or Bronco, they backtracked and picked up the trail again to complete the full run – well done girls!!! (they probably should have had a down for that!)

On their return there were nibbles (not you Allan) and chicken and salad for dinner with little easter eggs for dessert. After socialising for some time, the circle was finally called by the RA Slippery (not the GM as was reported last week in the notes).

➤ VISITING AND RETURNING RUNNERS

- Bedpan – out of hospital and doing okay (this was her excuse for not going on the run – can you believe it!!)
- Bend-it and Mudderfucker from Brisbane Thirsty or somewhere else, as a number of kennels were mentioned. Bend-it is such a shy girl she actually challenged the RA for not asking which hash club she was from. After humbly apologising, Slippery invited her to speak and she spewed forth with copious amounts of information which was then elaborated upon by Cumzy. (Do we have a hash gag??)

➤ DOWNES AND CHARGES

- Slippery and Bronco – hare/kitchen bitch
- “Shit of the Week” – went to the very talented Bronco – he exhibited a new skill – whilst Bronco had the delightful concoction of the down in his mouth for being the hare, Slippery announced he was the honoured recipient of the “Shit of the Week” award for keeping the circle waiting foreeeever! Instead of swallowing (he actually took notice of Lifer for once!) Bronco spat it back in his cup to avoid having another down. Alas, his plan failed as Slippery poured a new down into the backwash so he could enjoy a double dose.
- Grey Rooter and Rear Ender along with ADD and Dangles – Bedpan couldn’t help but notice that these two couples have been having lessons on how to dress from some Japanese tourists. They both graduated from the “we’re together because we’re wearing the same shirts” school of fashion.
- ADD, who swiftly handed the down over to Dangles, was not going to be blamed for promoting Slippery to GM in last week’s notes or for giving the wrong information about Darcy’s retirement drinks – there is definitely a limit to what she will do for love!

➤ AWARDS

- “Salt and Pepper Penises” award – Hairy just couldn’t resist giving these back to Slippery

- “Boobie” award – Hairy gave this to Bedpan because she was apparently talking a lot about vaginas (heads up Hairy, a vagina is down below and a boobie is up the top)
- “The Leadfoot award” – Darcy must have had a cleanout as he produced this award and promptly passed it on to Cumzy (not really sure why but she’s thinking about keeping it as she loves it)
- “The Voodoo Doll” also made another appearance after a long residency at Darcy’s place – he bestowed this doll upon Bedpan as he figured she’d had so many needles whilst she was in hospital that she could think of a few people she’d like to stick needles into.

Finally we found out why Bronco kept the circle waiting.....he was cleaning out his bags to reintroduce the following missing awards to the circle!

- “The Shit Stirrer” made a reappearance and surprise, surprise it went to Lifer.
- “The Star is Born” award went to Darcy for finally making it to retirement – well done Darc!
- “The Big Prick” award – no prizes for guessing who this one went to????????? Yes it was Hairy again (wonder how her vagina is actually....just saying there’s a bit of a pattern going on here).

➤ PERSONAL BUSINESS

- Bedpan – thanks for all the well wishes during her stint in hospital
- Ice Pubes has taken her place on the ward after having a tumble last week and ending up with six broken ribs (not just one or two like a normal bloke!)

➤ GENERAL BUSINESS

- Quickie’s 70th birthday at the Yacht Club – 2.30pm Sunday arvo – make sure you RSVP ASAP to Quickette if you haven’t done so already – remember.....no presents / 70’s theme
- BO hash at Darcy’s place on Wednesday night.

➤ NEXT WEEK’S RUN – Lifers place – 30 Vera Drive

➤ FRIDAY LUNCH – To Be Confirmed....At the “Rusty Eeyore” in Francis St at 12.30pm.

NB – NO RESPONSIBILITY WILL BE TAKEN FOR ANY MISINFORMATION THAT APPEARS IN THESE NOTES (remember I live with Bronco!)
