

Run 1715.

Darcy's Run.

19th April 2021

12 fantastic, fabulous, energetic athletes turned up to Darcy and Thor's abode to tackle the river crossings, mud, hills oh and speeding double B's. Well we went through very wet soggy grass, ask Luckless her white shoes are no longer white. As usual Darcy took us on a interesting tour of south Coffs, there was lots of chalk and flour 😊

When all the true athletes returned, all seven of us, we were greeted by sausage rolls, followed by a repast of baked potatoes, pumpkin, carrots, peas and a choice of baked chicken or pork with gravy and apple sauce, all I can say is it was yuuuummmmmmy. Thank you Thor it's been a long time since I've had home cooked baked dinner.. 😊 and many of us took extra home 👍

Our mighty RA Slippery decided that we all deserved a down

👎 Thor for being fabulous and cooking up the best baked dinner

👎 Darcy for setting the trail and his fabulous sausage rolls

👎 Bronco for whining all the way on the run, he was missing someone apparently

👎 Rear Ender for showing off her new 🚗 it's really great can't wait to have a drive in it

👎 Slippery for making us all have downs and for missing Aqua

👎 Lifer for complaining about her sore knee and not walking properly, you'd think she just had knee surgery

👎 AlloAllo for not turning up last week, just because he was in emergency 🤒

👎 Cumsngoes for taking the dogs seat

👎 Luckless for going back for seconds and then forgetting to eat it

👎 Grey Rooter for not going on the walk because he'd worked so hard putting up a fence

👎 On Heat for being one of the first home, instead of the last and I didn't short cut either 😭

👎👎👎👎 when Lifer comes again a down because she told me 12 Hashers and there was only 11 and she wondered why the money didn't tally 🤔

🏆 Awards

🏆 Bronco received the bull shit award for whining on the run

🏆 Grey Rooter received the broken star award for being precious, I think it's the last time we see that award, just saying 🤔
