

At the jetty, a dozen and one keen hashers met on a cold and windy night.
They set on an arduous little trek to show their might.
Lifer and Pharlap (with excuses of course) preferred to stay behind sitting on bums.
They rather sip wine and rum.
They also helped the hare to keep an eye on the BBQ. Thumbs up!
The resilient runners clicked torches and yelled On! On!
But what about Handy, she had already gone!
At the nearby foreshore, someone yelled Shark!
The weary hashers looked puzzled - one went Faark!
For those brave souls who plowed on through,
they were rewarded with spinach pie (on request) and a hearty beef stew.
Goodnight one and all hashers.
Now that you have been fed,
head for home and snuggle in bed.

Downs

Bolt Arse & Thunderbox – the Hare and the Assistant Cook
Thunderbox & Metro for wearing hats at the circle
ADD – Returnee
Not sure there were anymore charges as we were too fascinated with QUEEF, forgot about other charges!
Hahaha!

Awards

ADD - Chook (Rear Render asked whether anyone remembers the word for fanny fart. Luckless said it's QUEEF).
Probably, it's a good idea to name the Chook, the Queef Award from now on.
Lifer - Direction Sign
Luckless - Exercise Block
Pharlap - Bolt Man and Double Dick for calling Thunderbox - Bolt Arse (could be a Freudian slip).
Handy - Voodoo Doll

Personal Business

Dangles is getting better after the operation.
Notable mention for Metro for bravery. He pulled an elderly man out of the surf at the jetty and resuscitated him.
Unfortunately, the man did not survive.
Pharlap will continue to post 'Blast from the Past' on CHHH Facebook.

General Business

Christmas in July is slowly taking place with 30/31 have confirmed their attendance. Max 40-45 persons. Refer to flyer for full details on the website. The rest are encouraged to confirm asap.

Next week's Run – Allo Allo

Friday Lunch - Planto at 12.30 pm

On! On!