

Run 1721

🤔🤔🤔 Thor's Birthday Run. 🤔🤔🤔 31st May 2021 🦶🦶🦶🦶

22 starving Hashers turned up to Thor's abode for the 33rd Birthday Run, or so Thor thought with the marvellous feast she produced, I did warn everyone not to eat before they came!!! It was a good night for a run, not too hot, not too cold, so the athletes among us set off up the hill 🏔️ and found a drink stop where they were served port by the waiter Bronco, his better half was attending the fire with Lifer and what a great job they did 👍. Of course it wouldn't be Hash without some slackers and so a number of the "runners " returned home. Some however did the whole run, can't tell you who it was but I'm sure someone did 🤔

Back to the repast, little boys, sausage rolls, party pies were served but wait there was more, yummy sandwiches, spring rolls, dim sims but wait yes there was more, chicken dinosaurs and I'm sure I've forgotten some but that was only first course. Then came the trifle, chocolate crackles, cornflake something plus brownies and cheese cake and then to top it off there was birthday cake and just in case you didn't feel sated there were lolly bags to take home. I'm sure everyone put on a least 10 kgs!!

Fantastic spread Thor but I did hear someone say they missed Darcy's sausage rolls, ungrateful lot.

👉 Thor for doing such a marvellous spread and putting the rest of us non cooks to shame 🙄

👉 Bronco- standing in for Darcy, doing a great job as waiter and setting an interesting run

👉 3 little boys! For talking dirty in the back of the car, Pharlap, Metro, Quickie, something about finding the holes, playing with the others bum, you know what "boys" are like. Might I just add they were worse on the way home, noisy little blitters, just ask Stumbles 😄

👉 Metro - received a few but I can't remember what for

👉 Pharlap and Flaps- lazy buggers didn't get off their chairs, in Flaps defence he said he had to look after Pharlap 😏

👉 returning runners- Hairy, welcome back Hairy but I think she is still sick I didn't hear her all night 🤔

🏆 Awards

🏆 Lifer - short cutter, only went down the driveway and back, at least she went for a few steps not like some other Hashers! 🤔

🏆 Exercise block - Flaps, you know why

🏆 B...dy chook - Slippery, Pharlap was just being cruel 😏
