

Apologies for the late notes but had forgotten that the Hare now does the notes for their run till a reminder from good old Pharlap. Then was away in Yamba without my computer.

So here is a summary of what I remember.

About 16 dedicated Hashers showed up Coffs Creek and all set off on the run. First back were none other than Slippery and Lifer followed by the others in spits and spats. Not one of them found the beautifully marked trail set by Quickie. Twas not till the next day that Kalahari and 3944 did the belated run and found trail.

Quickie was the master Chef on the night with freshly BBQed snags accompanied by healthy salads and bread rolls.

Shit of the week award went to Flaps Up from Pharlap who was given the award last weat as a proxy for Flaps who wasn't there.

I was given the chook award but not sure why.

Can't remember the other downs. Maybe it had something to do with the port and chocolate mint slices we gave out after the circle but me thinks the night was enjoyed by all.

On On for now
