

This week's Notes by Thunderbox.....enjoy..on.on.

On a warm summer evening
On a night meant for walking
We met up with some Hashers
Who were all keen to move
Rain clouds coming over
Time was getting closer
To assemble one and all
When a late starter finally appeared, it started to pour
She said "son I made a life out of reading people's faces".
To be continued.
14 eager Hashers congregated for the first epic run for 2022.

Off they went uphill and down dale arriving back at the HQ in a thirsty and ravenous mood. Nibbles were served followed by Asian cuisine (Vietnamese Beef and Sweet Potato noodles with chicken). Desserts followed - plum pudding and brandy custard and dark chocolate.

A circle then formed with a down for the Hare. Then another for talking in the circle, then another for drinking before song was finished. A trifecta - is this a first, second or third???

SOW - One to Hairy for turning up late.

Charges:
Alky, Handy and Pharlap for finishing last.

Quickie for wearing hat in circle.

Bolt Arse for fabulous food.

Awards:
Rear Render received Kevin Bacon;
Lifer received the bullshit bag and Handy received an extra foot. (She'll need three socks comes winter!)
