Run: 1777
Date: 27-06-22
Hare: Slippery/Bronco
Venue: Aubrey Cres

After a cool and very windy day, 16 hashers gathered at 6PM (HAIRY!!!) for another epic Bronco-set run. They set off at 6pm on-trail (already trying to plan where they were going to shortcut) down Raleigh St. The hashers were actually surprised that it wasn't the marathon run Bronco is known for but a casual 3.9km stroll. It would have been longer if the hashers stuck to the trail.

On the run there were a few surprises – one being the bunnies near the CEX which Pharlap, Handy, Bolt-Arse and Metro got up close and personal with. Bolt-Arse provided photographic evidence on their return but it was really only Handy that got personal with the local wildlife. She had to take a little "comfort break" in the bushes with Pharlap providing the photographic evidence. Needless to say, Thumper, Bugs and Roger made off at the speed of light when the "moon" started to shine. After this unexpected diversion, the back runners decided to short cut as well, claiming they lost the trail (as if!! Remember Bronco set this run!!)

Back at Aubrey Crescent, the hashers were gathered in the garage. Some disappointment was expressed that there was no fire-bucket but deep down they were happy to be indoors. Their only regret was that they could not return the favour that Bronco always does them, loading up the fire with wood just before going home. The food started to come out on the runners return. Chips, dips, cheese and crackers for starters. Following was the veggie/bean soup and garlic bread to warm the cockles of their hearts, then chicken pesto and bolognaise pasta bake (no not in the one dish!). The clincher was definitely the Easter eggs for dessert!

Darcy, the RA's arse, called the circle and because he is so softly spoken, it took some time to achieve quiet amongst the rabble.

DOWNS & CHARGES

(only the ones I can remember are listed below – apologies for any that have been overlooked)

BRONCO – Hare – well actually he downed twice as Pharlap believed he had extra help from the other 3 "hares"

THUNDER BOX – "Shit of the Week" – apparently, he was wearing a beanie that was highly offensive to the RA and other AFL followers in the group. Not sure which state he's from but his defence was it was an NRL team beanie.

METRO – hat in the circle – not once, not twice, but 3 times so the RA confiscated it until the circle closed. This caused such anxiety he knocked over the last remaining down.

METRO – returning runner – seems Metro was robbed while he was away as he had no clothes to wear, no plate to eat from and no spoon – no wonder he was so desperate to keep that hat on in the circle.

HANDY & PHARLAP – Handy was charged for peeing on the run but it became a reverse charge after Pharlap took photos.

FLAPS – I’m not sure – maybe I’m making this one up – anyway if he didn’t get a down, he deserves one for something, I’m sure!

AWARDS

HAIRY - Hairy’s presence was cheered as everyone knew there would be dicks in the circle tonight! Hairy seemed quite adamant that she had not had any dicks for a while!!! Needless to say, that was rectified immediately by Darcy who presented her with his “Big Prick” and JFI who thought she needed the “Double Dick” to give her some comfort during the cold winter nights.

DARCY – Not to be outdone, Hairy returned fire and presented Darcy with the big wooden “Short Cutter” award. She sweetly suggested a number of places he might be able to put it to get the most benefit from this award.

A pretty piss-poor awards presentation tonight with only 3 surfacing. A number of awards have gone walk-about namely the collection of different phallic items such as the Salt’n’Pepper Dicks and the Dick Necklace. Kevin Bacon has not made an appearance for a while along with the Leadfoot, the wooden Stirrer, the booby Stubbie Holder” to name a few. Come on guys – we know you like the awards but clean out your bags and share the love!!! Unfortunately, the Boob was cremated at Darcy & Thor’s place a few weeks ago so will not be making a comeback any time soon.
